Book Review: LOOMING TRANSITIONS Amy Young | raisingTCKs

It is the friend that loves you, affirms you, listens to you, and speaks truth to you in love, encouraging you to think about your transition differently, to think about your transition rightly. Looming Transitions gave me some very helpful ways to think about my transition, including that change is okay and can lead to growth; that my life path being different than others is okay; and that the transition being hard and not perfect is okay and normal.
