Honor Code | Kwame Anthony Appiah

For me personally, a code of honor is that extra layer of accountability in my personal and professional life. Even if there's something else in your life—be it faith, law, or some other moral code—a personal code of honor is something you yourself design and take up for the sake of improving yourself, your life, and the lives of those around you. In Medieval times, knights had chivalry (which no, wasn't just about romancing the ladies!), Ancient Greek philosophers had virtues, as ...
